AWARD

(Delivered on this the 4th day of the month of May of the year 2023)

By Order dated 28-05-2012, bearing No. 28/12/2012-LAB/280, the Government of Goa in exercise of powers conferred by Section 10(1)(d) of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (for short 'the Act'), has referred the following dispute to this Tribunal for adjudication:-

"(1) Whether the action of the management of M/s Andrew Telecommunications India Private Limited, Verna Industrial Estate, Verna, Goa, in dismissing from services it's workman Shri Ritesh Parsekar, Re-Roll Operator, with effect from 20-04-2011, is legal and justified?

(2) If not, what relief the workman is entitled to?"

2. Before proceeding further, it is necessary to mention that the name of Party II was changed from M/s. Andrew Telecommunications India Pvt. Ltd. to M/s. Commscope India Pvt. Ltd., and the cause title was amended accordingly.

3. Party I has filed his Claim Statement. Party II has filed its Written Statement. Party I has filed his Rejoinder to the Written Statement.

4. The case of Party I is that the Party II appointed Party I as a "Cladding Operator" with effect from 11-08-2004. That Party I was not issued any Appointment Letter. That by letter dated 13-02-2006, Party I was appointed as Operator on probation for a period of 6 months. That on successful completion of probation, Party I was confirmed in the post of "Re-Roll Operator" in Grade-B1 with effect from 14-08-2006. That charge-sheet dated 26-02-2009 was issued to Party I. Party I was charged with the following misconducts under the Standing Orders:-

"... a) Clause NN (2): Willful slowing down in performance of work or abatement or instigation thereof.

- b) Clause NN (11): Commission of any acts subversive of discipline or good behavior on the premises of the establishment or any place outside the premises.
- c) Clause NN (12): Habitual neglect of the work or gross or habitual negligence or gross neglect of work or malingering.
- d) Clause NN (22): Willful insubordination or disobedience (whether or not in combination with another) of any lawful and reasonable order of a superior.
- e) Clause NN (25): Refusal to accept the charge-sheet, order or other communication from the Management served in accordance with these Standing Orders.
- f) Clause NN (49): Pursuance of any conduct against the interest of the Company/ Employer.
- g) Clause NN (50): Poor or unsatisfactory workmanship/poor performance. ...”

5. That Party I was called upon to submit his explanation to the charge-sheet by 10-03-2009. That, Party I did not file his reply to the charge-sheet as per the advice of his Union. That, by letter dated 26-02-2009, Party I was suspended with immediate effect pending enquiry. That the letter stated that subsistence allowance would be paid to Party I as per the provisions of the Certified Standing Orders. That, thereafter, by letter dated 30-03-2009, Party I was informed that Adv. Ajay A. Kadam has been appointed as Enquiry Officer to conduct the enquiry against him and that the enquiry would commence on 06-04-2009 at 3.00 p.m. in Room No.10, Hotel Antique, Mardol Residency, Verna, Goa. That the enquiry was conducted on various dates. That, upon the completion of enquiry, the Enquiry Officer submitted his report dated 10-03-2011 holding Party I guilty of all charges leveled against him. That, Party II submitted copy of the Enquiry Report to Party I on 11-03-2011. That, Party I submitted his say on 07-04-2011. That Party II dismissed Party I from service by letter dated 20-04-2011. That the dismissal was with effect from the close of the working hours of 20-04-2011.

6. That the enquiry conducted against Party I was not fair and proper. That, the enquiry conducted was against the principles of natural justice. That, the findings of the Enquiry Officer are without any basis. That the findings of the Enquiry Officer are without adequate evidence. That, there is no evidence to show that the targets set by Party II was achievable. That the low production was not “willful” or “deliberate”. That it was because of breakdown of machines, order being not issued in time, forklifts, drivers not being available on time, drums not being delivered in time, etc. That the period from 27-11-2008 till 21-02-2009, which is the alleged period of under-performance, is too short a period of time to determine the misconduct of Party I. That Party I had been working in the same manner as a Re-Roll Operator from February, 2006 and there were no complaints against him. That the Trade Union had raised a dispute regarding the Performance Appraisal Form and had advised the workers not to accept the same. That it is for this reason that Party I did not accept the Performance Appraisal Form for the year 2008-2009 and a show-cause notice. That the Enquiry Officer erred at coming to the conclusion merely on the deposition of witnesses who were working in a managerial or supervisory capacity. That Party II erred in not considering the past record of Party I and the extenuating circumstances before awarding the punishment. That Party I is being victimized for his trade union activities. Therefore, it is prayed that it be declared that the inquiry conducted against Party I was not fair and proper and was in breach of the principles of natural justice. That, it be declared that the Enquiry Report dated 10-03-2011 is perverse. That the Enquiry Report dated 10-03-2011 be quashed and set aside. That the Order of Dismissal dated 20-04-2011 be declared illegal and unjustified and that the same be quashed and set aside. That Party I be reinstated with full back wages and continuity of service.

7. Party II has filed its Written Statement. Party II states that Party I was appointed on probation as an “Operator” by letter dated 13-02-2006. That by letter dated 13-05-2006, he was designated as a “Re-Roll Operator”. That by letter dated 14-08-2006 his services were confirmed as “Re-Roll Operator” in Grade “B1” with effect from 14-08-2006. That charge-sheet dated 26-02-2009 was issued to Party I.

8. That the charge-sheet states that Party I was provided with “Re-Roll Operator Daily Log Sheet”. That it indicates the minimum expected production. That the performance of Party I from 27-11-2008 to 21-02-2009 was poor/very poor. That this low productivity seriously affects the financial performance of Party II. That Party I refused to accept Performance Appraisal Form for the year 2008-2009. That Party I refused to accept show-cause letter dated 08-12-2008. That the said letter had to be sent to the home address of Party I by registered post acknowledgment due. That till date, Party I has not filled in the Performance Appraisal Form or replied to the show-cause notice.

9. That the charge-sheet further states that the said act constitutes misconduct under the Certified Standing Orders as mentioned below:-

Clause NN (2): Willful slowing down in performance of work or abatement or instigation thereof.

Clause NN (11): Commission of any acts subversive of discipline or good behavior on the premises of the establishment or any place outside the premises.

Clause NN (12): Habitual neglect of the work or gross or habitual negligence or gross neglect of work or malingering.

Clause NN (22): Willful insubordination or disobedience (whether or not in combination with another) of any lawful and reasonable order of a superior.

Clause NN (25): Refusal to accept the charge-sheet, order or other communication from the Management served in accordance with these Standing Orders.

Clause NN (49): Pursuance of any conduct against the interest of the Company/Employer.

Clause NN (50): Poor or unsatisfactory workmanship/poor performance.

10. That Party I was called upon to submit his explanation to the charge-sheet on or before 10-03-2009. That Party II instituted an enquiry. That Mr. Ajay A. Kadam was appointed as the Enquiry Officer to conduct the enquiry. That the Enquiry Officer completed the enquiry and submitted his report dated 10-03-2011. That by the said report, the Enquiry Officer held Party I guilty of the charges leveled against him. That Party II issued letter dated 11-03-2011 calling upon Party I to give his explanation to the report of the Enquiry Officer. That Party I submitted his explanation by reply dated 07-04-2011. That Party II was not satisfied by the explanation. That Party II considered the gravity of the misconduct and dismissed Party I from service with effect from 20-04-2011. That all the legal dues of Party I has been paid. It is denied that the enquiry against Party I was not fair and proper or that it violated the principles of natural justice. It is denied that the finding of the Enquiry Officer is without any basis. It is denied that the findings of the Enquiry Officer are without adequate evidence. It is denied that the low production was not "willful" or "deliberate". It is denied that it was because of breakdown of machines, orders not being issued in time, forklifts, drivers not being available on time, drums not being delivered on time etc. It is denied that the period from 27-11-2008 to 21-02-2009, which is the alleged period of under-performance, is too short a period of time to determine the misconduct of Party I. It is denied that the Enquiry Officer had erred in coming to the conclusion merely on the basis of witnesses working in a managerial or supervisory capacity. It is denied that Party I is being victimized for his trade union activities. That the present dispute is not an "industrial dispute" as defined under the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947. That in case the inquiry is set aside on any of the grounds, Party II be permitted to lead fresh evidence before this Tribunal to prove the said charges. It is further prayed that the Statement of Claim be rejected.

11. Party I has filed his Rejoinder. In his Rejoinder, Party I denies that the dispute between Party I and Party II is not an industrial dispute under the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947.

12. The following issues were framed by this Tribunal:-

ISSUES

1. Whether the Party I proves that the domestic enquiry held against him is not fair, proper and impartial?
2. Whether the charges of misconduct leveled against the Party I are proved to the satisfaction of the Tribunal by acceptable evidence?
3. Whether the Party I proves that the action of Party II in dismissing him from service w.e.f. 20-4-11 is illegal and unjustified?
4. Whether Party II proves that the present dispute is not an "industrial dispute" as defined under the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947?
5. What relief? What Award?

13. Issues No. 1, 2 and 4 were treated as preliminary issues. These issues were disposed off by Award (Part) dated 23-08-2018. Issues No. 1 and 4 were decided in the negative and issue No. 2 was held in the affirmative.

14. Thereafter, further evidence was completed and the matter was fixed for arguments.

15. At this stage, the Parties filed an application for Award in terms of Settlement (Exhibit 31 Colly).

16. The terms of the Settlement are as follows:-

- I. That in the present matter it is agreed between the Parties to settle the dispute amicably for a composite amount of Rs. 3,50,000/- (Rupees three lakh fifty thousand only) before this Court and accordingly issued Cheque/Demand Draft dated 03-04-2023.
- II. The Party II herein have agreed to pay a sum of Rs. 3,50,000/- (Rupees three lakh fifty thousand only) in full and final settlement of the entire claim amount of the Party I in the present matter.

III. The Party I herein declares that his claim in the present matter is conclusively settled.

IV. The Party No. I, Shri Ritesh Parsekar state that he is having no claim of whatsoever nature against the Party No. II/Employer and that he does not wish to pursue to the present reference and treat the said reference as settled."

17. I have perused the records of the case and the terms of Settlement. I find that the terms of Settlement are beneficial to the Workman (Party I) and the Employer (Party II). Hence, they are accepted.

Hence, I pass the following order:-
